The school was founded in 2005 and is supported by Help without Frontiers since 2006. Formerly known as "LDF" the school is located in the fields of Ban Mon Tong outside Mae Sot. The student parents are working mainly in the surrounding fields as migrant workers and earn very little money. Often they have to move in order to find work. There are mainly Burmese, Karen and Paó ethnic children attending the primary school. This school year a Montessori nursery was introduced.
